Mt. Pleasant news

Homecoming activities were held at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Curch last Sunday. A tremendous crowd turned out to hear the Rev. Napier deliver the morning message, which was taken from the 15th chapter of St. Luke. The theme of the sermon was "Making preparations for the Homeward Journey." The Young Adult Choir provided beautiful music for the service.

Deacon Ross Edward and Robert Chambers went to Blackstone and brought Miss Ann Franklin here for the day.

The ladies served lunch at the homecoming, and the young ladies helped them.

Offering for the day totaled $2,881.81, a very good offering for the day. We have a Father to supply our needs.

The Rev. Jack Wilson delivered the afternoon message, titled "Things to think over." The Young Adult Choir provided music, and the Rev. Wilson's son played the piano. Visiting the service were members of the Rev. Wilson's congregation from St. Paul Baptist Church.

The Rev. Napier will be the evangelist for the week. Come out and hear him preach. There will be different visiting choirs each night.
